For Immediate Release: January 29, 2015

Contact: John G. Donnadio, Executive Director

(Trenton) The New Jersey Association of Counties (NJAC) will swear-in Mercer County Freeholder Ann Cannon as its 74th President at 11:00 a.m. on January 30, 2015 in the Senate Chambers of the State House in Trenton.

"I look forward to leading NJAC this year as it continues serving county governments throughout the State with its proactive advocacy and solution driven approach to addressing complex legislative and regulatory matters," said Mercer County Freeholder and NJAC President Ann Cannon.

Senator Linda Greenstein will administer the oath of office to Ms. Cannon and to NJAC's 2015 slate of executive officers, which include: Hunterdon County Freeholder John King as First Vice President, Gloucester County Freeholder Heather Simmons as Second Vice President, Monmouth County Freeholder Gary Rich as Secretary/Treasurer, and Monmouth County Clerk Claire French as Immediate Past President. Following the ceremony, culinary arts students from the Mercer County Technical Schools will provide lunch to invited guests at the State House Museum.

"Congratulations to NJAC's executive officers and board of directors for their vision and commitment to helping lead this outstanding organization at a critical period in the history our great State," commented Cannon.

NJAC is committed to advocating for legislation, regulations, and policy directives that empower county governments to operate more efficiently and effectively. As a non-partisan organization that represents the only true regional form of government in the State with a proactive and unified voice, NJAC is dedicated to enhancing the level of service provided and save valuable taxpayer dollars.
