For Immediate Release: January 27, 2016

Contact: John G. Donnadio, Executive Director

(Trenton) The New Jersey Association of Counties (NJAC) is swearing-in Hunterdon County Freeholder John King as its 75th President at 11:00 a.m. on January 29, 2016 in the Senate Chambers of the State House in Trenton.

"I look forward to leading NJAC this year as it continues serving county governments throughout the State with its proactive advocacy and solution driven approach to addressing complex legislative and regulatory matters," said Hunterdon County Freeholder and NJAC President John King.

Senator Christopher "Kip" Bateman will administer the oath of office to Mr. King and NJAC's 2016 executive officers, which include: Gloucester County Freeholder Heather Simmons as First Vice President, Monmouth County Freeholder Gary Rich as Second Vice President, Essex County Freeholder Brendan Gill as Secretary/Treasurer, and Mercer County Freeholder Ann Cannon as Immediate Past President. United States Representative Leonard Lance will provide the keynote remarks. Following the ceremony, culinary arts students from the Hunterdon County Polytech Career and Technical School will provide lunch to invited guests at the State House Museum.

"I would like to commend NJAC's executive officers and board of directors for their vision and commitment to helping lead this outstanding organization at time when county governments are playing a growing role in the everyday lives of New Jersey residents," stated King.

NJAC is committed to advocating for legislation, regulations, and policy directives that empower county governments to operate more efficiently and effectively. As a non-partisan organization that represents the only true regional form of government in the State with a proactive and unified voice, NJAC is dedicated to enhancing the level of service provided and save valuable taxpayer dollars.
