

Atlantic County Government is seeking to hire a Labor Attorney, job description below.

Atlantic County Government is comprised of a professional staff diligently providing resources in an ethical and fair manner to all residents and businesses in the region. County government is the ideal workplace to support the livelihood of residents and businesses. Employees treasure the importance of serving the diverse population of the County and local industries. A broad range of services are managed by County departments and constitutional offices. These services encompass dozens of job titles with different requirements that provide opportunities to job seekers of all skill sets, levels of experience, and education. A valued characteristic of Atlantic County Government is the diverse workforce.

Atlantic County Dept. of Law is looking for an experienced labor relations attorney to handle the negotiation of labor union contracts, handling union grievance hearings, employee discipline hearings, among other duties. Candidates should have a minimum of 3 years of labor experience. Salary to be commensurate with experience.

The best way to apply is through our on-line employment application link:

<https://www.atlantic-county.org/county-employment/application.asp>