(Trenton) The New Jersey Association of Counties (NJAC) is pleased to announce that Senator Michael Testa will swear-in Cape May County Freeholder Marie Hayes as the Association's 79th President at 11:00 a.m. on January 24, 2020 in the Senate Chambers of the State House in Trenton.

"I look forward to leading NJAC this year as it continues advocating for county governments across the State with a unified, proactive, and solution driven approach to solving critical issues," said Cape County Freeholder and incoming NJAC President Marie Hayes.

The Association will also swear-in its board of directors and executive officers that include: Mercer County Freeholder John Cimino as 1st Vice President, Monmouth County Administrator Teri O'Connor as 2nd Vice President, Cumberland County Freeholder Joseph Derella as Secretary/Treasurer, and Essex County Freeholder Brendan Gill as Immediate Past President.

"At a time in which county governments are playing a vital and growing role in the everyday lives of New Jersey residents, I would like to commend NJAC's executive officers and board of directors for their leadership, public service, and commitment to this outstanding organization as a valued and trusted resource," stated Hayes.

Immediately following the ceremony at 12:00 p.m., NJAC and the New Jersey Wireless Association (NJWA) will host a press conference in Room 103 of the State House in Trenton to urge State leaders to comply with federal guidelines and restore critical 911 dollars to county and municipal 911 centers as the State of New Jersey has once again earned the distinction of being the worst offender of diverting 911 fees in the entire nation. In fact, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) concluded in its recent "Annual Report on the Collection and Use of 911 Fees," that New Jersey diverted $92,083,000.00 of the $122,905,000.00 it collected in 911 fees in 2019. Please visit NJAC's website at www.njac.org for more details about our growing organization.
